PRELUDE

Jesus, Priceless Treasure

- Paul Manz

OPENING HYMN # 398, I sing the almighty power of God

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins;

People His mercy endures for ever.

THE DECALOGUE, the people kneeling, please turn to page 350 in the red Book of Common Prayer, and respond with the words in italics.

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION, said by all, kneeling as able

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

8:00 am

Lord, have mercy upon us.

10:00 am sung

Kyrie, kyrie, Kyrie eleison.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Kyrie, kyrie, Kyrie elesion.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY: The Lord be with you. Response: And also with you.

Let us pray: Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading is from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 43:16-21

Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

The Word of the LORD. Thanks be to God.

Psalm # 126, please join in saying the psalm in unison

- The Saint Helena Psalter

1 When God restored the fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like those who dream.

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy.

3 Then they said among the nations, *
“God has done great things for them.”

4 God has done great things for us, *
and we are glad indeed.

5 Restore our fortunes, O God, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.

6 Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.

7 Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

The Second Reading is from Philippians 3:4b-14

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the LORD. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Sequence Hymn # 686, Come, thou fount of every blessing

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John 12:1-8

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Christ.

FAMILY CHAPEL TIME

SERMON

The Rev. Jessica Frederick, Curate

NICENE CREED, said by all, standing as able

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Art Show and Auction on April 27 at 7pm

You may have noticed the artwork in the Church that was installed as part of our Lenten Program, but you might not know the whole story. The art is the work for Lindsey Erickson, who grew up in Lakewood and now lives in Maine. Many of the pieces were created a couple of years ago as a personal Lenten project and we're honored to be able to display them this year.

Lindsey designs the images digitally and then prints them out on paper, cuts and layers them into a work of art. She will be with us on April 27th at 7pm to speak about her work and we will complete a silent auction for five of the pieces. The proceeds from the sale will go to support the work of recovery through art at the Mental Health Association. Bidding for the art work begins at $150 and remains open until the Art Show in April 27th.
